Second Ipiña Scholarship Awarded

Posted August 4, 2009, 4:36 p.m. Staff Report

Abel Cuevas achieved so much as a graduating senior from the English as a Second Language program at Woodrow Wilson High School that the shepherds of the Gustavo Ipiña Memorial Scholarship couldn't forego his academic performance.

The sponsors of the scholarship — founded by Taly Haffar, a local federal prosecutor with the U.S. Attorney's Office, and Erin Hendricks, an assistant district attorney in Dallas County — already named one honoree for the 2008-09 class, Oscar Milan.

The scholarship committee today announced Cuevas as this year's second $5,000 grant winner.

Congratulations to Abel and Oscar. This is certainly a worthy program and organized and executed in a first-class manner by Lakewood residents Taly and Erin. Everyone should be donating to this cause.
